

PRIVACY POLICY

Your privacy is important to J.D. Wesson and Associates, Inc. (“JDW”). This Privacy Notice (“Notice”) applies to <https://www.jdwesson.com/> and any sub domains.

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We do not collect personally identifiable information about our clients (or you) , such as your name, address, telephone number, fax number, e-mail address, etc., unless you choose to email us directly or fill out a referral form, which can be found throughout this website.

We do not automatically collect certain non-personally identifiable information when you visit our site, such as the type of browser you are using, the type of operating system you are using, and the domain name of your Internet service provider.

HOW WE NORMALLY USE INFORMATION ABOUT OUR CLIENTS

In the ordinary course of operation, we use personally identifiable information that you provide solely to respond to your inquiry or process a referral form you have completed at any point throughout our website.

Any data gathered will be shared, if appropriate, with JDW employees throughout the state of California and any third parties who provide services on our behalf, and you expressly agree to such transfer. Your information will never be sold or provided to solicitors.

We will not contact you about other matters, unless you specifically request it, nor will we share, rent, or sell your personally identifiable information outside JDW, except where we are required to share your information with any third parties who provide services on our behalf. We will not voluntarily share, rent, or sell it outside of JDW, except where we are required to share your information with any third parties who provide services on our behalf.

It is possible, though unlikely, that we might be forced to disclose personally identifiable information in response to a legal process or when we believe in good faith that the law requires it (e.g., in response to a court order, subpoena, or a law enforcement agency’s request), in which case we would share such information only to the extent necessary.

COLLECTION OF INFORMATION BY THIRD-PARTY SITES

JDW may post information about services and programs. Should you choose to register electronically to be contacted for our services or programs, we will not provide your information to a Third-Party without your approval or permission. As for our own use of your registration information, that will be handled by us as if you had registered by telephone or on paper.

COOKIES

Cookies are small files that contain information sent by a website that is saved on your computer's hard drive. When you visit our site, we may place a session cookie on your computer to help enhance the users browsing experience; however, nothing that collects personal information. The cookies are not persistent beyond the end of the users' session. You may delete cookies from your computer or set your browser to reject cookies. However, doing so may limit some functionalities of our site.

OUR COMMITMENT TO SECURITY

We employ reasonable security measures to prevent unauthorized access to information that we collect online.

HOW TO CONTACT US

If you have any questions or concerns about the privacy policy for JDW or its implementation, you may contact us via our Contact Us Page. If, at any time, you decide that we should no longer hold any of your personal data, or wish to change the use to which any such data can be put, please let us know by contacting us at:

REVISIONS TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We may update this policy from time to time. If and when we make changes, you will be notified by email, through the services, or by posting a prominent notice on our website at or prior to the change becoming effective. We encourage you to review this policy periodically to stay informed on our privacy practices. Your continued use of our services or website constitutes your agreement to be bound by such changes to this policy. Your only remedy, if you do not accept the terms of this policy, is to discontinue use of our service and our websites.
